

DECORATIVE BEADS

Drape these baubles over books or a tray. Rainbow Speckled Recycled Glass, from $9; beadchest.com

SIDE PLATES

Blue Mosken, $50 for four; oka.com

TABLE LAMP

Opaque rust-orange glass creates a golden glow. Ansel (10" tall), $90; urbanoutfitters.com

TAPER HOLDERS

Delicate, timeless shapes in easygoing colors. Glass in Jewel and Amber, $32 each; patinastores.com

CARAFE

Handmade and one of a kind. Available in three colors. Marta Carafe, $72; darlingspring.com

HOURLASS

Functional sculpture for your desktop. Milano Times, $20-$35; store.moma.org

GLASSES

Cobalt Confetti, $36.50 for four; bluerosepottery.com

VASE

Swirls of gray and amber make a statement with or without flowers. Patterned Glass Vase, $35; hm.com

THE ART OF GLASS

Swirled, speckled, or blown into unique sculptural shapes, glass pieces like these can be an affordable way to integrate fine art into your everyday decor. Display the pieces—even functional items like glasses, plates, or a carafe—on an open shelf or buffet when not in use; the light will show off their jewel-tone hues, textures, and translucence while casting shadows as dynamic as the objects themselves. ■