

On Trend: Colorful Hardware

Metallic and black hardware will always be in style, but there's something about a color-coated cabinet pull that adds a little something extra to a kitchen or bathroom. They're available in dozens of colors and styles, but we're especially loving this '80s-retro collection from Hawkins New York.

Essential Hardware,
from $12 each;
hawkinsnewyork.com

Picture Perfect

Here's an easy upgrade with a ton of personality. Colorfully painted mats are a simple, playful way to jazz up plain picture frames. There are lots of bespoke styles available from different sellers on Etsy. Our pick: Custom Hand-Painted Mats by Morgan Brown Paints on Etsy, from $12 for a 4x6. ■

We're going bananas for the banana-in-coffee trend (especially me, who whips up a weekly loaf of banana bread). I'm obsessed with our Salted Maple Banana Bread Syrup for adding to iced coffee, whipping into cold foam, and drizzling over oatmeal."

—GINGER PERRA
Senior Social Media Editor

Set the Table

Need some inspiration for your spring and summer table settings? Check out Ivie Page Living (iviepageliving.com) from Replacements Ltd.—the well-known online retailer for collectible china patterns, crystal, and more. The site is all about blending vintage and modern table collections in a fresh, new way. They offer tablescape inspiration, holiday ideas, shopping sources, and even an interactive virtual design tool that helps you visualize your place setting online before you buy.

